

AT THE PUMPKIN PATCH

Every fall, our family visits the famous [1. _____] Farm, known for its [2. _____] pumpkin patch and [3. _____] corn maze. This year, we decided to do something [4. _____] and enter the farm's annual pumpkin carving contest!

We arrived early, when the air was still [5. _____] and the leaves were a mix of [6. _____] and [7. _____].

Our first task was to pick a pumpkin. We couldn't find the one we wanted, but luckily we found a [8. _____] to use instead!

To make sure we didn't get disqualified, I disguised the [8. _____] with a [9. _____] that I colored orange. Now, no one would know!

Armed with our carving tools, which were a knife and a [10. _____], we began to carve our [8. _____]. I sketched a design of a [11. _____] face.

Our [8. _____] started to take shape, featuring [12. _____] eyes and a [13. _____] mouth.

Meanwhile, the farm was bustling with activities. Kids were [14. _____] in leaf piles, and the scent of [15. _____] apple cider filled the air. We took a break to enjoy a hayride. Funnily enough, the hayride wasn't pulled by a tractor, but by a/an [16. _____] [17. _____] instead!

As the day ended, our pumpkin, now named [18. _____], was entered into the contest. We won an award for the the most [19. _____] pumpkin! Pretty good considering it was actually a [8. _____]. What a [20. _____] day it was.
